Situation for singing this song:

Purandara Dasa was going from Sholapur to Pandarapura. On the way, he comes across a gathering of muslims celebrating their festival. They saw Dasar. They had heard about him singing lot of songs spontaneously. They catch hold of him and brings him to their place and requests him to sing a song praising their God. They were singing “.... kyaa Hussain .... Kimsan .... Baa Hussain.... Bhamsan .... Allah Allah ....”. Purandara Dasa had such a presence of mind. Then, he sings this song immediately – “ariyade bandevu kimsan pariharisayya bhamsan ....”. He was a haridasa. What can he sing in the midst of muslims celebrating their festival in the name of their God. He sings song on Lord Shri Hari giving annotations of Kimsan, Bhamsan and Allah. A beautiful song with great presence of mind.
